

Make This Gingerbread Man Hat and Gingerbread Woman Hat With This Free Crochet Pattern

These Gingerbread man and woman hats are super simple to make and so adorable! People will think you put a lot more time into them than they actually take. They fit a newborn 0 to 3 months, so they are perfect for a first Christmas!

They would make great gifts or photo props.

Stitches Used

- SS – Slip Stitch
- SC – Single Crochet
- HDC – Half Double Crochet

Materials

- Size I 5.5mm Crochet Hook
- Worsted Weight Acrylic Yarn in Brown, White and Red
- Yarn Needle
- Ribbon (for girl version)

Instructions

This hat is worked in the round. At the end of each row, continue on to the first stitch without chaining or turning. This eliminates a seam.

Row 1: Chain 2. HDC x 8 in second chain from hook. (8)

Row 2: 2 HDC in each stitch around. (16)

Row 3: HDC, 2 HDC in next stitch around. (24)

Row 4: HDC x 2, 2 HDC in next stitch around. (32)

Row 5: HDC x 3, 2 HDC in next stitch around. (40)

Row 6: HDC x 9, 2 HDC in next stitch around. (44)

Row 7-14: HDC around. (44) SS in first stitch from previous round. Finish off and weave in ends.

Embellishments

You will use slip stitching to complete both the frosting ring and mouth.

Frosting Ring

For the white frosting ring around the bottom, join white yarn to back of hat at row 13. SS around. Finish off and weave in ends.

Cheeks

With red yarn, chain 2, 6 SC in second chain from hook. 2 SC in each stitch around. SS in first stitch of row. Finish off, leaving a tail for sewing.

Eyes

With white yarn, chain 2, 6 SC in second chain from hook. SS in first stitch of row. Finish off, leaving a tail for sewing.

Mouth

The mouth is slip stitched onto the hat using white yarn. Join at row 10, slip stitch to create a half circle. Finish off and weave in ends. Once the mouth is finished, sew on cheeks and eyes.

Gingerbread Girl

For the girl version, tie some ribbon into a bow around a stitch near the top of the hat.

As always, comment below if you have any questions! I'm happy to help. Feel free to let me know if you find any errors or parts that need further explanation. Permission granted to sell finished projects. Have fun!

©2014 Crochet Cauldron. All Rights Reserved.